

Cookies Policy

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small files which are stored on your computer or device. The purpose of the cookie is to help our website keep track of your visits and activity and make you have a better experience using brightonsu.com. You can disable any cookies already stored on your device, however these may stop our website from functioning as well for you.

Types of Cookies We Use

Necessary cookies

Necessary cookies allow us to offer you the best possible experience when accessing and navigating through our website and using its features. For example, these cookies let us recognise that you have created an account and have logged into that account.

Functionality cookies

Functionality cookies let us operate the site in accordance with the choices you make. For example, we will recognise your username and remember how you customised the site during future visits.

Analytical cookies

These cookies enable us and third-party services such as Google analytics to collect aggregated data for statistical purposes on how our visitors use the website. These cookies do not contain personal information such as names and email addresses and are used to help us improve your user experience of the website.

We also may use social media buttons and/or plug-ins on our website to allow you to connect to your social media channels.

How to Delete Cookies

If you want to restrict or block the cookies that are set by our website, you can do so through your browser setting. Please review the All About Cookies website for advice.

To opt out of all Google Analytics, they offer a browser add-on for Internet Explorer 11, Google Chrome, Mozilla Firefox, Apple Safari and Opera. You can find their browser add-on here.
